

Consolidated Tomoka Announces Offering of $75 Million of Convertible Notes Due 2020

March 4, 2015

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Consolidated-Tomoka Land Co. (NYSE MKT: CTO) (the "Company") announced today that it intends to offer $75 million aggregate principal amount of Convertible Senior Notes due 2020 through a private placement under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"). As part of the offering, the Company expects to grant the initial purchasers an option to purchase up to an additional $15 million principal amount of notes.

The notes will be senior unsecured obligations of the Company and will be convertible into, subject to various conditions, at the Company's option: cash, common stock or a combination thereof. The Company expects to use the net proceeds from the sale of the notes to repay borrowings under its credit facility, to fund future investments in income-producing assets and for general corporate purposes, which may include the repurchase of Company common stock under the Company's share repurchase program.

The exact timing and terms of the offering will depend on market conditions and other factors.

The offering is being made to qualified institutional buyers pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act. Neither the notes nor any shares of Company common stock issuable upon conversion of the notes have been or are expected to be registered under the Securities Act, or under any state securities laws and, unless so registered, may not be offered or sold in the United States except pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws.

This press release does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any securities, nor shall it constitute an offer, solicitation or sale in any jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation or sale is unlawful.
