December 10, 2009

Dear Ms. Crisp:

Wintergreen Advisers, LLC, intends to present the following proposals at the Consolidated-Tomoka Land Co. (the "Company" or "CTO") 2010 Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the "Annual Meeting").

Recommending Shareholder Information

The name and address of the recommending shareholder is Wintergreen Advisers, LLC (the "Adviser"), 333 Route 46 West, Suite 204, Mountain Lakes, New Jersey 07046. The telephone number of the Adviser is (973) 263-2600. The undersigned, David J. Winters, is the Managing Member and CEO of the Adviser. As of the date of this letter, Wintergreen Advisers, LLC may be deemed to beneficially own 1,481,474 shares of common stock, par value $1.00 per share ("Common Stock"), of the Company, which constitutes 25.9% of the Common Stock. The Common Stock was purchased between February 21, 2006 and December 5, 2007. The Adviser is the investment adviser to Wintergreen Fund, Inc. (the "Fund"), a registered investment company, which is the beneficial owner of 564,961 shares of Common Stock (approximately 9.9% of the outstanding shares). The Adviser also serves as investment adviser to other pooled investment vehicles, which also own additional shares of Common Stock of the Company (the Fund, the other investment vehicles and the Adviser shall be referred to collectively herein as "Wintergreen"). Wintergreen has beneficially owned more than 10% of the Common Stock of the Company since May 2006. Wintergreen has a good faith intention to continue to hold the Common Stock through the date of the Annual Meeting and intends to appear in person or by proxy at the Annual Meeting to present the following proposals.

Proposal 1

Wintergreen hereby nominates Thomas P. Warlow, III as a candidate for election to the Company's Board of Directors (the "Board") at the Annual Meeting to serve in the class of Directors which, after the Annual Meeting, will serve for a term scheduled to end in 2013.

Supporting Statement

Wintergreen is nominating one highly qualified nominee who is independent from Wintergreen and who we believe possesses the expertise necessary to work to restore and enhance shareholder value. The nominee is independent of the Company in accordance with Listing Standards of NYSE Alternext US LLC and is committed to exploring all alternatives to increase shareholder value.

In Wintergreen's view, the nominee, if elected, would represent all the shareholders and will not serve the purpose of advancing or favoring any particular shareholder or other constituency of the Company.

You are urged to vote "FOR" the election of our nominee.

In accordance with the instructions provided in the Company's Proxy Statement filed on April 8, 2009, we hereby submit the following information (including the information attached as Appendix A), with regards to the nominee:

Nominee Information

Name

Thomas P. Warlow, III

Business Experience

Mr. Warlow has been the President and Chairman of The Martin Andersen-Gracia Andersen Foundation, Inc. since 1998. He has also been the President and Chairman of Georgetown Enterprises, Inc., a Florida registered general contractor involved with development and construction in the Florida market since 1976. Mr. Warlow is the former Chairman of the Orange County Road Advisory Board and the Orange County Underground Utility and Licensing Board. Mr. Warlow holds a B.E. in Civil Engineering from Vanderbilt University, received in 1966. He sits on the Boards of various charitable organizations.

Proposal 2

Wintergreen would like to propose that the Board adopt a compensation policy providing that the Company's shareholders will be given the opportunity to vote on an advisory resolution at each annual meeting to approve the Company's Compensation Discussion and Analysis as outlined in the annual proxy statement.

We believe the best way to implement this principle is to provide the shareholders with the opportunity to vote on the three issues outlined in the resolution below.

RESOLVED, that shareholders of CTO urge the board of directors to adopt a policy that CTO shareholders be given the opportunity at each annual meeting of shareholders to vote on an advisory resolution, to be proposed by Company's management, to ratify (i) the Company's executive compensation philosophy and objectives as described in the Compensation Discussion and Analysis section of the Company's Proxy Statement, (ii) the compensation of the named executive officers set forth in the proxy statement's summary compensation table (the "SCT") and any accompanying narrative disclosure of material factors provided to understand the SCT, and (iii) the application of the compensation philosophy and objectives as described in the Executive Compensation Elements section (or a comparable section).

Supporting Statement

It is Wintergreen's view that executive compensation at CTO has not been structured to maximize long-term shareholder value.

For example, the Company's February 3, 2009 Form 8-K filing details its revised annual executive bonus criteria (the "Criteria"). For purposes of determining bonus eligibility and potential bonus pool amounts, the revised Criteria includes a one-time per project equivalency calculation that will represent the hypothetical after tax net income, which would have been recognized on the land portion of any land lease, build-to-suit lease, or self-development project in that year had the property been sold to a third party. Under the Criteria, executives may receive pro forma compensation for entering into certain transactions that may ultimately be unprofitable for the Company, and there does not appear to be any claw-back mechanism with respect to bonuses previously awarded to executive officers and management. The stated purpose of the Criteria is to reward short term performance. However, we believe that an executive compensation plan or any criteria underlying such a plan should be devised to reward executives and managers' contributions to the long term growth and financial stability of the Company. Additionally, the Criteria do not provide for a reduction in the Company's future earnings used to determine potential bonus pool amounts and bonus awards to take into account any earnings previously recognized pursuant to the Criteria on a pro forma basis as described above, which creates the potential for double counting earnings in the future.

Accordingly, we urge CTO's board to allow shareholders to express their opinion about executive compensation by establishing an annual referendum process. The results of such a vote would, we believe, provide CTO with useful information about whether shareholders view the Company's executive compensation, as reported each year, to be in shareholders' best interests.

We urge shareholders to vote for this proposal.

Proposal 3

Wintergreen would like to propose shareholder action requesting amendments to CTO's Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws and Governance Committee Charter to implement a majority vote for Directors. We believe the best way to implement this principle is to provide the shareholders with the opportunity to vote on the resolution below.

Resolved, that the shareholders of the Company request that the Board take the steps necessary to amend the By-Laws, Articles of Incorporation, and Governance Committee Charter of the Company to provide that (i) any candidate in an uncontested election for directors be required to receive a majority of the votes cast in order to be elected as a director and (ii) any incumbent director in an uncontested election of directors who does not receive a majority of the votes cast shall promptly tender his or her resignation from the Board. The amended Governance Committee Charter would also require that the Board, through a process managed by the Governance Committee and excluding the nominee in question, accept or reject the resignation within 90 days after the Board receives the resignation. The amended Governance Committee Charter would also provide that if the Board rejected the resignation, it would publicly disclose the reason for such rejection.

Supporting Statement

Shareholders of many public companies have urged that director nominees be required to receive a majority of the votes cast in favor of their election, rather than the generally applicable plurality standard. In response, a number of public companies have adopted charter or bylaw provisions requiring a majority vote standard and/or bylaws or corporate governance principles requiring that a director not receiving such a majority submit his or her resignation to the board or one of its committees. The resignation policy or bylaw is designed to address the typical state law provision that provides that an incumbent director remains in office until his or her successor is elected, even if the director has not received a vote sufficient for re-election. We believe plurality voting in the election of directors does not promote true corporate democracy, and allows unpopular incumbents who receive even one vote to be re-elected. CTO's plurality voting standard ensures that CTO's nominees are automatically elected to the board in any uncontested election, regardless of performance. By contrast, a majority voting standard in uncontested elections means a candidate cannot be elected or remain in office unless the holders of a majority of the votes cast believe the nominee has done (or in the case of a new nominee, will do) a good job representing the shareholders' interests. Majority voting, coupled with a requirement that incumbents who do not get a majority vote must resign effective immediately, is an important corporate governance feature that promotes director accountability, and provides shareholders with a more meaningful role in director elections.

We urge shareholders to vote for this proposal.

Please be advised that neither the delivery of this letter nor the delivery of additional information, if any, provided by or on behalf of Wintergreen or any of its affiliates to the Company from and after the date hereof shall be deemed to constitute an admission by Wintergreen or any of its affiliates that this letter or any such information is required or is in any way defective or as to the legality or enforceability of any matter or a waiver by Wintergreen or any of its affiliates of its right to, in any way, contest or challenge any such matter.
