Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

Advisory clients of Wintergreen Advisers are the beneficial owners of approximately 25.9% of the Issuer's common stock. Wintergreen Advisers has initiated discussions with the Issuer on maximizing the value of the Daytona properties, through direct development or partnerships. Wintergreen Advisers intends to continue its dialogue with, and to take an active interest in, the Issuer to encourage strategic focus on the Volusia county properties. To this end, Wintergreen Advisers, from time to time, will communicate with the Issuer and other holders of Common Stock regarding such matters.

On June 23, 2009, Wintergreen Advisers delivered a letter (the "June 23 Letter") to the Board of Directors of the Issuer congratulating the new-elected board members, applauding the board for separating the positions of Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer, encouraging the board to make the shareholder mandated changes to the Issuer's Articles of Incorporation and

By-Laws and expressing concern over possible conflicts of interest between the newly appointed Chairman of the Board and his personal business interests. A copy of the June 23 Letter is attached hereto as Exhibit B and incorporated herein by reference.

The Reporting Persons may in the future purchase additional Shares or dispose of some or all of such Shares in open-market transactions or privately negotiated transactions. Other than as described herein, the Reporting Persons do not have any plans or proposals that would result in any of the actions described in paragraphs (b) through (j) of Item 4 of the instructions to Schedule 13D.

Board of Directors
Consolidated-Tomoka Land Co. ("CTO")
c/o Linda Crisp, Corporate Secretary
Post Office Box 10809
Daytona Beach, Florida
32120-0809

June 23, 2009

Dear Board Members

Wintergreen extends its congratulations to the newly-elected CTO board members, especially the three new independent members. At the 2009 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, the owners of CTO communicated their desire for significant change with regard to CTO's governance practices. We applaud the CTO board for taking the first steps toward implementing the will of its shareholders by seating its new directors and by separating the positions of Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer. We look forward to working with the newly-constituted board to maximize the value of CTO for all of its shareholders.

We strongly encourage the board to promptly respond to its shareholders with respect to the other corporate governance matters addressed at the meeting. The majority of the votes cast at the 2009 Annual Meeting of Shareholders favored:

- (i) A de-staggered board to provide shareholders with the right to elect all board members each year, and
- (ii) A board that consists of no more than eleven directors.

We urge the board to take the necessary steps to amend the Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws as required for these two significant shareholder mandates to be implemented. We believe full board support of these improved governance issues, both now and at a meeting of shareholders, will evidence a board properly fulfilling its fiduciary duty. We urge the board to act with deliberate speed to implement the will of its shareholders and to communicate to all shareholders its actions in support of improved corporate governance.

With regard to the appointment of Bill Voges as Chairman of the Board, we remain concerned about possible conflicts of interest between Mr. Voges' fiduciary duty to CTO shareholders and his personal business obligations to The Root Organization. As President and CEO of Root and its various affiliates, Mr. Voges has an ownership stake in several real estate developments in and around the Daytona area. Root and its affiliates own the Root Executive Park in Ormond Beach as well as the multi-story "Poe and Brown" office building on South Ridgewood Avenue in Daytona, both large developments located only a few miles from where CTO is attempting to develop similar office properties. Root, its affiliates and/or Mr. Voges also appear to own office buildings on Williamson Drive and International Speedway Boulevard, as well as the Fentress Pointe flex-office project and a stake in the Tomoka Business Center flex-office project. These projects seem to be in direct competition with the office and flex-office developments that CTO has developed or is in the process of developing, for the capital to develop the projects, as well as the tenants to fill them. It is unclear to Wintergreen how the conflicts of interest described above have been handled during Mr. Voges' tenure as a member of the board. We would appreciate having a better understanding of how the CTO board is handling these conflicts, as well as how Mr. Voges himself has balanced his fiduciary duties to CTO with his pecuniary interests in The Root Organization.

Thank you for your time and consideration of these important matters.

Please direct any questions regarding the information contained in this correspondence to our legal counsel, Patricia Pogliinco ((212) 574-1247), or Fola Adamolekun ((212) 574-1320), of Seward & Kissel LLP, One Battery Park Place, New York, New York 10004.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ David J. Winters
